Staff Present: Lydia Coakley - Fiscal Officer and Bill Robinette – Administrator

Residents: Faye Whitaker

Business:

Discuss 735 Marietta Street water line replacement. The homeowner F. Whitaker would like to be reimbursed for some of the payments made for 735 Marietta Street totaling $6,286.27. She feels the village is responsible for this cost due to there being line issues on our side afterwards. She states that there were mistakes made by the village on her side. The low-pressure issues started in April 2022. F. Whitaker also discussed concerns about paying a large water bill for water used. L. Coakley stated that F. Whitaker said there was not a leak so there for the village cannot give a sewer credit.

Casey Boyette (plumber) stated that there is holes was her line. Mayor A. Taylor and council does not feel its our responsibility. Resident is responsible for their side of the meter and the village is responsible for our side.
